

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

CHARLES DWIGHT ROGERS,

Defendant.

CASE NO. MJ 20-391

DETENTION ORDER

The Court has conducted a detention hearing under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and concludes there are no conditions which the defendant can meet which would reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required or the safety of any other person and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

Defendant is on supervised release from a conviction lodged in the Eastern District of Washington. The probation office proffered he had no permission to leave the Eastern District and come to Western District and thus essentially absconded supervision.

It is therefore ORDERED:

(1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;

1 (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with
2 counsel;

3 (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the
4 Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined
5 shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in 6 connection with a court proceeding; and

7 (4) The Clerk shall provide copies of this order to all counsel, the United States
8 Marshal, and to the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Officer.

9 DATED this 1st day of July, 2019.
